State Commander Expected to Act on the Willard Straight Men's Opposition to Post Dismissal

W. F. Deegan Is Elected County Chairman of The Bronx; Bonus Parade and Tag Day Planned

By Frank J. Price Jr.

Legionnaires are waiting with great interest to see what action State Commander Charles G. Blakeslee, of Binghamton, may see fit to take as a result of the criticism directed at the national executive committee by members of Willard Straight Post, of this city, who have condemned the committee's resolution calling for the dismissal from office of Louis F. Post, Assistant Secretary of Labor.

The commander, adjutant and treasurer of the post, in addition to several other members, have signed a letter to The Tribune, which reads in part:

"The undersigned officers and members of Willard Straight Post, 312, of the American Legion, respectfully condemn the resolution adopted by the national executive committee calling for the dismissal from office of Louis F. Post."

This attitude is construed by some Legionnaires as a direct repudiation of the Legion's own investigating committee, which examined into Post's

Legion Head to Meet K. of C. Chief Here

National Commander Frederick W. Galbraith will meet Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty, of the Knights of Columbus, at 11 o'clock Saturday morning at the Commodore Hotel, this city, to discuss with Mr. Flaherty and members of the Knights of Columbus committee of national officers the Knights' offer of $5,000,000 to the Legion to erect and endow a national memorial building in Washington. Mr. Galbraith wired from Cincinnati making the appointment.

The K. of C. offer has been the object of discussion in American Legion posts and K. of C. councils all over the country. The Fine Arts Commission of Washington is already interesting itself in the matter of a suitable site for the proposed memorial.

The repudiation, the Willard Straight Post's members are refusing to abide by the findings of the majority in the organization and should be reprimanded.

The post has not yet expressed its opinion of Secretary Post's most recent

Deegan Again Heads Bronx

In addition to being first vice-commander of the state, William F. Deegan will hold down the office of county chairman of the Bronx during the next year. He was unanimously reelected to that office at a recent meeting of the veterans of that borough. Other new Bronx officers are:

Vice-chairman, Henry W. Boyce; secretary, Daniel H. Skilling; treasurer, William A. Smith; executive committee, F. H. Hines, N. Caminetti, J. F. Reidy, W. F. Daly, M. F. McLoughlin, Irving Davis and Raphael Murphy.

Much progress is being made in the Bronx in the matter of dedicating memorial trees along Grand Concourse to war heroes. Tree guards and plaques have been ordered by the committee, of which Daniel Sullivan, of United Service Post, is chairman, and some selections will be given to defray the expense of the undertaking.

Legion to Electioneer

The parade down Fifth Avenue a week from Saturday by American Legion members and the Veterans of Foreign Wars is not to be the only demonstration by the fighting men of this city who believe they are entitled to adjusted compensation.

Instructions have been issued by State Commander Blakeslee calling upon members of the Legion system nationally to campaign for the passage of the referendum on Election Day, which provides for a $45,000,000 bond issue with which to pay the state bonus. In addition to a thorough canvass of voters the Legionnaires will post a detail near each polling place on Election Day to remind voters of the referendum.

Several more Legion posts have pledged themselves to march in the bonus parade a week from Saturday. It is not because the American Legion approves this method of reminding the people of their obligation, they say, but because they are convinced an ineffective demonstration will have a blighting effect on the beneficial legislation they seek. Arthur Viers and Walter Heckman, both of the Bronx, will appear with their full membership.
